SUBJECT INDEX

Audiology

Auditory Testing

Averaged Electroencephalic Audiometry in Infants (William E. Lentz and Geary A. McCandless) 19-28.
Bekesy Audiometry in Functional Hearing Loss: A Case Study (Ira M. Ventry) 125-141.
Bekesy Audiometry in Simulated Hearing Loss (S. K. Kacker) 506-510.
Critique of Neonatal Hearing Evaluation (Robert Goldstein and Charles Tait) 3-18.
Modification of Speech Discrimination in Patients with Binaural Asymmetrical Hearing Loss (Herbert J. Arkebauer, George T. Mencher, and Carol McCall) 208-212.
Observations on Relations Between Thresholds for Pure Tones and for Speech (Raymond Carhart) 476-483.
Relevance of Vascular Disorders to Audiological Findings (Norma T. Hopkinson and Robert F. Lindberg) 447-465.
Temporal Integration: I. Clinical Implications of a Laboratory Study. II. Additional Data from Hearing-Impaired Subjects (Roy W. Gengel and Charles S. Watson) 213-224.

Hearing Aids

Application of a High-Frequency Consonant Discrimination Word List in Hearing-Aid Evaluation (Harvey J. Gardner) 354-355.
A Frequency-Response Procedure for Evaluating and Selecting Hearing Aids for Severely Hearing-Impaired Children (Roy W. Gengel, David Pascoe, and Irvin Shore) 341-353.

Auditory Disorders

Characteristics of Manually Communicating Deaf Adults (Jerry L. Northern, Darrel Teter, and Richard F. Krug) 71-76.
Observations on Hearing Levels of Preschool Cleft-Palate Children (Robert J. Harrison and Betty Jane Philips) 252-256.
Psychological Reactions to Hearing Loss (Clyde L. Rousey) 382-389.

Rehabilitation

Evaluation of Special Hearing Aids for Deaf Children (Norman P. Erber) 527-537.

Modification of Speech Discrimination in Patients with Binaural Asymmetrical Hearing Loss (Herbert J. Arkebauer, George T. Mencher, and Carol McCall) 208-212.

Therapy for Reduction of Continuous Phonation in the Hard-of-Hearing Population (Joseph P. Millin) 496-498.

The Use of Real-Time Visual Displays of Speech in the Training of a Profoundly Deaf, Nonspeaking Child: A Case Report (Rachel E. Stark) 397-409.

Speech Pathology

Aphasia

The Importance of Seeing Red: Self-Teaching Techniques for Adult Aphasia (Joan Montgomery) 250-251.

Objective Indices of Severity of Chronic Aphasia in Stroke Patients (Aaron Smith) 167-207.

Articulation

Compensatory Physiologic Phonetics for the Glossectomee (Madge Skelly, Diane J. Spector, Robert C. Donaldson, Armand Brodeur, and Francis X. Paletta) 101-114.

A Distinctive Feature Analysis of Children's Misarticulations (Leija V. McReynolds and Kay Huston) 155-166.

Guidelines for Choosing Appropriate Phonetic Contexts for Speech-Sound Recognition and Production Practice (Katherine Jane Fleming) 356-367.

A Preliminary View of Information Theory and Articulatory Omissions (Laurence B. Leonard) 511-517.

A Study of the Effectiveness of the S-Pack Program in the Elimination of Frontal Lisping Behavior in Third-Grade Children (Bruce P. Ryan) 390-396.

Cleft Palate

Observations on Hearing Levels of Preschool Cleft-Palate Children (Robert J. Harrison and Betty Jane Philips) 252-256.

A Speech Aid for Velopharyngeal Incompetency (Erwin C. Lubit and Robert E. Larsen) 61-70.

The Use of a Bilateral Speech Appliance in Conjunction with a Pharyngeal Flap: Two Case Reports (Galen W. Quinn and Raymond Massengill, Jr.) 422-424.

Stuttering

The Application of Filial Therapy to Young Children with Stuttering Problems (Michael P. Andronico and Irwin Blake) 377-381.

The Combined Use of Operant Procedures and Theoretical Concepts in the Treatment of an Adult Female Stutterer (Donald B. Egolf, George H. Shames, and Janet J. Blind) 414-421.

Operant Procedures Applied to Stuttering Therapy for Children (Bruce P. Ryan) 264-280.

Reflections on Conceptualizing the Stuttering Therapy Process from a Single Theoretical Framework (Eugene B. Cooper) 471-475.

Speech Clinicians' Conceptions of Boys and Men Who Stutter (C. Lee Woods and Dean E. Williams) 225-234.

The Use of the Portable Voice Masker in Stuttering Therapy (Leslie Gruber) 287-289.

Voice

A Case Study of Psychogenic Hoarseness (Twila E. Strandberg, Jerry Griffith, and Mack W. Hollowell) 281-286.

Dysphonias Associated with Spinal Bracing in Scoliosis (Madge Skelly, Robert C. Donaldson, George E. Scheer, and Margaret R. Guzzardo) 368-376.

Early Motor Unit Disease Masquerading as Psychogenic Breathy Dysphonia: A Clinical Case Presentation (Arnold E. Aronson) 115-124.

Hyponasality Associated with Patulous Eustachian Tubes: Report of a Case (Eugene M. Batza and Willard Parker) 410-413.

Management of a Patient with Velopharyngeal Incompetency of Undetermined Origin: A Clinical Report (Breta S. Lawshe, James C. Hardy, James W. Schweiger, and Maurice W. Van Allen) 547-551.

Papillomata of the Vocal Folds: A Review (Morton Cooper) 51-60.

A Preliminary Report of Some Atypical Movement Patterns in the Tongue, Palate, Hypopharynx, and Larynx of Patients with Spasmodic Dysphonia (Gerald N. McCall, M. Leon Skolnick, and David W. Brewer) 466-470.

Speech Rehabilitation Following Asai Method, Laryngoplasty (Frederick M. Turnbull, Jr., Victor Passy, and Janice R. Siegel) 77-81.

A Technique for Teaching the Laryngectomized to Trap Air for the Production of Esophageal Speech (Gardner Gateley) 484-485.

Language Delay

Developmental Sentence Scoring: A Clinical Procedure for Estimating Syntactic Development in Children's Spontaneous Speech (Laura L. Lee and Susan M. Canter) 315-340.

The Diagnostic Significance of Sentence Repetition for Language-Impaired Children (Lillian Berry-Luterman and Asher Bar) 29-39.

A Foster Home Approach to Speech Therapy (John T. Hatten and Pequetti A. Hatten) 257-263.

On Normal and Autistic Pronouns (Warren H. Fay) 242-249.

Parent Clinicians in the Language Training of an Autistic Child (Sondra B. Goldstein and Richard I. Lanyon) 552-560.

Dialect

Dialectal Differences: Professional and Clinical Implications (Sol Adler) 90-100.

Speech Disorders and Personality

Functional Speech Disorders and Personality: A Decade of Research (Ellin L. Bloch and Leonard D. Goodstein) 295-314.

Tongue Thrusting

Tongue Thrusting: Some Clinical Observations (James M. Wood) 82-89.

Language

Language Development

Developmental Sentence Scoring: A Clinical Procedure for Estimating Syntactic Development in Children's Spontaneous Speech (Laura L. Lee and Susan M. Canter) 315-340.

On Normal and Autistic Pronouns (Warren H. Fay) 242-249.

Why Not Pivot Grammar? (Lois Bloom) 40-50.

Phonetics

Voice

The Respirometer as a Diagnostic and Clinical Tool in the Speech Clinic (Ralph L. Beckett) 235-241.

General

Diagnostic Principles

Developmental Sentence Scoring: A Clinical Procedure for Estimating Syntactic Development in Children's Spontaneous Speech (Laura L. Lee and Susan M. Canter) 315-340.
The Diagnostic Significance of Sentence Repetition for Language-Impaired Children (Lillian Berry-Luterman and Asher Bar) 29-39.
